THE THEME

My friends, today's readings are about making choices. We hear in the first reading that we are offered life and death, and whichever we chose will be given to us. In the Gospel Jesus preaches about our choice to be angry or not, truthful or not, faithful or not. What we choose will have lasting impact on our earthly lives, the lives of our loved ones, and our life beyond the grave. Let us pray today for wisdom.

THE READINGS

SIRACH 15:15-20: Before us are life and death; it is our choice.

1CORINTHIANS 2:6-10: God's wisdom, not that of the rulers of this age.

MATTHEW 5:17-37: A sensible, sometimes difficult, way to live.

From Fr. Peter's Desk
Sixth Sunday In Ordinary Time

Dear Parish Family:

Today's First Reading from the Book of Sirach, sets the scene for the remaining two readings. Sirach offers practical wisdom on how to live according to God's instructions. The writer reminds us that God has gifted us with the power to choose freely between life and death, good and evil. Whichever he chooses, Sirach tells us, shall be given to him.

In our Second Reading from St. Paul's letter to the Corinthians, Paul shows us what the call to choose life means. Embrace God's love by living according to God's wisdom, a plan hidden until now, a plan of love for the salvation of all humanity.

In our Gospel reading, Jesus continues the Sermon on the Mount as he illustrates how his message "fulfills the law and the prophets." Jesus explains, by using examples from the Ten commandments, that out of control emotions of anger and resentment within us will lead us down a road that we will not want to go.

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ, to choose life in Christ means to pay attention not only to one's actions but, more importantly, to their roots within our inner being. The wisdom of following God's law can bring us peace. Let's pray for that wisdom in our lives and in our relations with others.

May God Bless You All,
Fr. Peter

STEWARDSHIP
Stewardship Reflection

Stewardship involves more than just the gift we bring to the altar. Today's reading says clearly that it is fidelity to God's law that makes our offering acceptable.

Living Stewardship

The First Reading today tells us that we have a simple choice: to follow God or not. Sometimes, however, we may not know what God is asking of us or we may be tempted to choose to disobey God. This week, ask the Lord in prayer to show you the way.
