THE THEME

Suffering is real, even for those who are called by God. The prophets, the disciples, the early Christians often paid a price for responding to the call. We may understand this more readily in times of persecution or political unrest or observe it in other faith traditions. Even choosing to live a Gospel life may overwhelm us. Despite the paralyzing feeling of fear, Jesus often said: "Don't be afraid."

THE READINGS

JEREMIAH 20:10-13: Suffering Jeremiah laments and praises God.

ROMANS 5:12-15: Christ's grace overshadows Adam's sin.

MATTHEW 10:26-33: Jesus counsels the apostles to not be afraid.

From Fr. Peter's Desk
Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parish Family:

Today's Gospel reading hits home, especially in our current world health situation. At some point in life, we may face difficult circumstances, such as serious illness, sudden loss, natural disaster or even a pandemic! Even ordinary challenges can seem overwhelming at times. God does not promise anyone a life untouched by difficulties or even tragedy. Instead, God offers abundant and providential care in all circumstances. Faith in this promise that we are not left to face our challenges and fears alone is a building block of resilience.

As we honor our fathers today, we hear Jesus reassure his disciples by reminding them of the tender care of his heavenly Father. Our heavenly Father watches over us faithfully and lovingly, every hair on our heads is accounted for. Today is a good day to be grateful to all of our fathers, grandfathers, uncles and father figures-living and deceased. May they enjoy the rewards of their goodness.

May God Bless You All,
Fr. Peter

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship Reflection

As Christians, we should not be afraid to let the world know that we are Christians. Jesus reminds us to not be afraid of those who persecute and mock us for our Faith.

Living Stewardship

“Lord, in your great love, answer me.” These words come from the depths of our hearts as we call to our God during our time of prayer. When you pray, trust in God’s great love.
