Thirteenth Sunday
in Ordinary Time
June 28, 2020

Think of ourselves as dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus.

—Romans 6:11

THE THEME

Living as a Christian is not a neutral reality. The disciples and early Christians were committing themselves to real challenges, often life-threatening. Answering Christ's call was to embrace his life with all its ramifications. Those who did so believed it would be worth it. It's doubtful that they blindly followed him. Have we ever considered that being Christian may cost us something? Perhaps we've never asked ourselves this question, Maybe it is time to do so.

THE READINGS

2KINGS 4:8-11, 14-16a: Elisha rewards the woman who responds to him.

ROMANS 6:3-4, 8-11: The baptized have died with Christ and will also live with Christ.

MATTHEW 10:37-42: The requirements and rewards of discipleship.

From Fr. Peter's Desk
13th Sunday In Ordinary Time

Dear Parish Family:

The practice of hospitality is affirmed throughout Scripture. In today's First Reading from the 2nd Book of Kings, extraordinary blessing is promised for the hospitality extended to Elisha from the Shunammite woman. Our practice of hospitality should be shared to all we encounter because through our kindness to others, we express our baptismal call and put our faith into action.

St. Paul, in his letter to the Romans, elaborates what He has been writing about in Romans 5: the contrast between two humanities because of Adam's sin and Jesus' death and Resurrection. While the former brings about human violence and death, the latter brings about the capacity to become just. Those who have accepted Jesus' free gift must live differently; they must not continue in sin but must live as if they have died, because sin is connected with death.

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ, what does it mean to live in God and in justice? Such living involves what we do for the vulnerable and those in need. Instead of judging and criticizing each other, we must welcome and help, especially those who cannot repay us. Let us pray for the grace to continue to build God's Kingdom here on earth by lending a helping hand to all those in need.

May God Bless You All,
Fr. Peter

STEWARDSHIP
Stewardship Reflection

Jesus calls us to take up our crosses and follow Him. We must have faith that our God loves us and will see us through all of our troubles.

Living Stewardship
